Helping the Transfer Student Succeed

Many of today's students are learners accumulating credit hours from multiple institutions. Institutions are increasingly interested in recruiting and retaining these transfer students, but we must first understand their mindset and needs. This program demonstrates award-winning programs and practices, found to improve the educational experience and success of this new breed of college student.

Topics and programs featured include:

- Translating research trends, and exploring policies & procedures
- Strategies that address expectations & influences of baby-boomer parents
- The "Successful Transfer Enhancement Program" (STEP) initiative
- Texas' "Mechanical Engineering Transfer Compact" transfer agreement

Online 24/7
June 27 - July 11, 2011
